

Social Media and Public Communications Policy

Nexus Technologies, Inc.
Effective Date: January 1, 2026

1. Scope

This policy applies to all employees posting about Nexus Technologies, its products, customers, or colleagues on personal or professional social media accounts, including LinkedIn, X, Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, blogs, and podcasts.

2. Do's

- Identify personal opinions as your own when discussing industry topics.
- Share approved marketing content using official hashtags provided by Communications.
- Protect confidential information, including unreleased product details and customer names.
- Be respectful; disagreements should remain professional and factual.

3. Don'ts

- Do not disclose non-public financial data, security incidents, or personnel actions.
- Do not impersonate the company or speak as an official spokesperson without authorization.
- Do not harass, threaten, or discriminate against any person or group.
- Do not post content that would reasonably harm Nexus Technologies' reputation.

4. Incident Response

If you observe a social media post that may violate this policy or create reputational risk, notify your manager and HR within 24 hours. The Communications team may issue corrective guidance or takedown requests when necessary.

5. Training

All employees complete annual social media awareness training. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to termination, depending on severity.

Additional guidance on brand voice: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on confidentiality: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on employee advocacy: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on crisis communications: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on brand voice: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on confidentiality: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on employee advocacy: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on crisis communications: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on brand voice: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on confidentiality: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on employee advocacy: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on crisis communications: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on brand voice: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on confidentiality: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on employee advocacy: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on crisis communications: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on brand voice: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on confidentiality: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

Additional guidance on employee advocacy: Employees should consult their manager and HR Business Partner when questions arise. This section reinforces consistent application of company standards, documentation requirements, and escalation paths. Managers are responsible for fair enforcement, timely communication, and referring complex situations to HR within one business day.

